

GERMANS MANAGE TO HOLD THEIR OWN IN TERRIBLE STRUGGLE ALONG SOMME FRONT

French and British Infantry Charge Teutonic Positions but Are Speedily Brought to Standstill by Enemy's Fire.

ALL ATTACKS OF THE ALLIES ARE REPULSED

Unusual Bravery is Displayed by Kaiser's Troops, They Hold Out Successfully Against Superior Numbers, Is Claim.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]—Berlin, Oct. 17.—(By wire to Special.)—Detailed reports about recent fighting on the Somme front show distinctly that the enemy has been repulsed in all attacks. It is claimed that the Kaiser's troops displayed unusual bravery in holding out successfully against superior numbers. The fighting was particularly fierce in the sector of the Somme front where the German forces were engaged in a series of attacks. The enemy's attacks were repulsed in all instances, and the German forces were able to hold their own. The fighting was particularly fierce in the sector of the Somme front where the German forces were engaged in a series of attacks. The enemy's attacks were repulsed in all instances, and the German forces were able to hold their own.

DRY FARM METHODS ARE BEST ADAPTED TO WHEAT GROWING

Expert Says Grain Can be Grown More Profitably This Way Than by Irrigation; Other Important Subjects Are Discussed.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]—(By wire to Special.)—The subject of dry farming methods for growing wheat was discussed by an expert at a meeting held here today. The expert stated that dry farming methods are the best adapted to wheat growing in this region. He stated that irrigation is not necessary for the successful growth of wheat in this region. The expert also discussed other important subjects related to wheat growing, including the use of fertilizers and the importance of proper soil management. The meeting was attended by a large number of farmers and agricultural experts.

The expert also discussed the importance of proper soil management and the use of fertilizers. He stated that the use of fertilizers is essential for the successful growth of wheat in this region. The expert also discussed the importance of proper soil management and the use of fertilizers. He stated that the use of fertilizers is essential for the successful growth of wheat in this region.

VILLA NOW LOCATED ON HEARST RANCH IS LATEST ADVICE

Passengers Reaching El Paso Claim That Chief Bandit Is Concentrating His Forces in the Babicora District.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]—(By wire to Special.)—The latest advice received from El Paso is that Villa is now located on the Hearst ranch. Passengers reaching El Paso claim that the chief bandit is concentrating his forces in the Babicora district. The latest advice received from El Paso is that Villa is now located on the Hearst ranch. Passengers reaching El Paso claim that the chief bandit is concentrating his forces in the Babicora district.

The latest advice received from El Paso is that Villa is now located on the Hearst ranch. Passengers reaching El Paso claim that the chief bandit is concentrating his forces in the Babicora district. The latest advice received from El Paso is that Villa is now located on the Hearst ranch. Passengers reaching El Paso claim that the chief bandit is concentrating his forces in the Babicora district.

ALL MEASURES FOR RELIEF OF POLAND ARE AT STANDSTILL

Important Differences Still Exist Between the Allies and Central Powers; President Wilson Is Keenly Disappointed.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]—(By wire to Special.)—The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

STRIKERS' DEMANDS AT BAYONNE PLANT ARE AGAIN REFUSED

Superintendent Informs Men He Will Deal With Them When They Drop Their Wage Increase Request; Offers to Arbitrate.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]—(By wire to Special.)—The strikers' demands at the Bayonne plant have been refused again. The superintendent informs the men that he will deal with them when they drop their wage increase request. He offers to arbitrate. The strikers' demands at the Bayonne plant have been refused again. The superintendent informs the men that he will deal with them when they drop their wage increase request. He offers to arbitrate.

The strikers' demands at the Bayonne plant have been refused again. The superintendent informs the men that he will deal with them when they drop their wage increase request. He offers to arbitrate. The strikers' demands at the Bayonne plant have been refused again. The superintendent informs the men that he will deal with them when they drop their wage increase request. He offers to arbitrate.

FRANCE IS PLANNING REMOVAL OF HER POLITICAL METHODS

More Firm and Concentrated Direction of Business of Nation Is Probable as the Result of Lessons Growing Out of War.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]—(By wire to Special.)—France is planning the removal of her political methods. More firm and concentrated direction of business of the nation is probable as the result of lessons growing out of the war. France is planning the removal of her political methods. More firm and concentrated direction of business of the nation is probable as the result of lessons growing out of the war.

France is planning the removal of her political methods. More firm and concentrated direction of business of the nation is probable as the result of lessons growing out of the war. France is planning the removal of her political methods. More firm and concentrated direction of business of the nation is probable as the result of lessons growing out of the war.

GREEK SITUATION IS NOW LOOMING UP AS IMPORTANT PHASE OF EUROPEAN STRUGGLE

New Note of Grave Character Handed Government by Commander of Entente Fleet Causes Constantine to Hurry to Capital.

HEAVY FIGHTING IS ON IN GALICIAN THEATER

Austro-German Forces Begin Attacks on Russian Lines; French Take Offensive on Somme Front and Make Slight Gains.

[By Evening Herald Special Wire]—(By wire to Special.)—The Greek situation is now looming up as an important phase of the European struggle. A new note of grave character has been handed to the government by the commander of the Entente fleet, causing Constantine to hurry to the capital. Heavy fighting is on in the Galician theater. Austro-German forces begin attacks on Russian lines. The French take the offensive on the Somme front and make slight gains.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.

The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed. The situation in Poland remains at a standstill. Important differences still exist between the Allies and the Central Powers. President Wilson is keenly disappointed.